Dear SiELE Editorial Team,

We have worked on the revision as suggested by Reviewer 1 first (we have highlighted the changes in yellow), and, on this same draft, we have continued to work on the revision as suggested by Reviewer 2 (we have highlighted the changes in green).

In this email, we have attached the rebuttal letter form (Attachment 5) and the article revision file dated May 5, 2022.

I have also submitted my revision and uploaded it to the journal's OJS. However, it seems that I can not attach the second file / the rebuttal letter to the journal OJS.

Please notify us once you have received our email

We are looking forward to hearing from you

Dear Author,

I hope this email finds you well.

I would like to inform you that your paper has been edited, which includes proofreading and layouting. It has now been uploaded to the Galley, which can be accessed in the Editing section (see the attached file for detail on how to access this - step #6).

The final most important step is that you read the whole paper and let us know if there are any changes required. At this stage, only minor changes are possible. A change in the substance of the article needs further external reviews. We will make the required changes to the document, so please identify the page, paragraph, and line where the changes are required.

For example:

1. On page 340 (line 3 in paragraph 2), please change a misspelled word "serviced" to "served."
2. There is a space required on page 340 (line 4 in paragraph 3). The word "researchwas" should be changed to "research was".
3. On page 330 (last line of paragraph 1), please capitalize the first letter of the word english (into English).

In addition, please check:

1. whether the title on the first page of the article matches the title in the header of the article.
2. whether the page number in the first and last pages of the article matches the page number in the header of the article.
3. whether the title, author, author order, abstract, keywords, and references in the document matches those in the metadata (see the attached file for detail on how to access this - step #8).

Also, please check whether author name(s), year, title, volume, issue, and page number range are correct in "Citation in APA style" located at the bottom of the first page of your paper.

In some cases, there is a comment in the Layout section (see the attached file for detail on how to access this - step #9). Please read and respond to this comment in the reply email when you get back to us.

Let us give you 24 hours to return this to us. Please note that no further changes can be made after we publish the paper and inform the Scopus for indexing. Therefore, please read everything thoroughly.

Please kindly confirm that you have received this email by giving me a brief response.

Best regards,

Faisal Mustafa
