festschrift for Jim Siegel

To: Reza Idria, Cc: Joshua Barker, Danilyn Rutherford, Sidel, JT, Anne Emanuelle Berger

Dear Reza Idria:

As someone who was a former student and/or current colleague and friend of Jim Siegel, we're reaching out to you with regard to a festschrift we are planning for him. We hope that you might be interested in contributing to this project. It could be by way of an essay reflecting on Jim's work or something that had been shaped however indirectly by his writings. It could also take the form of personal reminiscences. In any case, we see this project as a way of reckoning as much as celebrating Jim's contributions to anthropology, Indonesian and Southeast Asian studies, among several other fields.

We hope you'll agree to be part of this festschrift, in which case we'd love to have your contribution sometime later this year—by late October or early November if at all possible. If you have any questions or suggestions, especially of people who you think we should invite, please do not hesitate to contact any of us below. I should also mention that Anne Bergr, Jim's spouse, is actively involved in this project. Once we hear back from you, we will follow up with more details about the project.

Many thanks and we look forward to your response.

To: Joshua Barker, Vicente L. Rafael, Sidel, JT, drutherford@wennnergren.org

Dear Friends/Colleagues,

We are writing with an update on the festschrift for Jim. We have an understanding with Cornell SEAP Publications to publish the festschrift in the October issue of the journal INDONESIA.

Thank you to those who have already submitted their essays! For those who have not yet done so: we will need your submissions by January 8, 2024, at the latest.

If you have any questions, don't hesitate to be in touch.

All the best,
Joshua, Vince, Danilyn, John, Anne

Dear Joshua,

Please find attached my essay for Jim. I regret that I could not send this to you earlier, as I lacked confidence to do so. I am uncertain if this piece adheres to the festschrift format. I would be grateful if you still have the time to review my submission and I look forward to hear your feedback for improvement. Thank you so much once again for initiating the tribute to Jim.

All the best,
Reza

Dear Professor Idria,

I'm Katy Bond, Acquisitions Assistant for SEAP at Cornell University Press. I'm about to send you an Adobe E-signature document - this is the contributor agreement for your article in the Fall 2024 issue of Indonesia. There will be a few fields for you to fill in - your name, the title of your article, etc. - and then we'll need your signature.

Let me know if you have any questions, or if the signable document doesn't come through.

Best,
Katy

Re: Cornell UP: Contributor agreement

To: Katlyn Bond

Dear Katy,

Thank you for sending the author agreement for my article. I have completed and signed the document, and it is attached for your records.

Upon reviewing the downloaded document, I noticed that my entries in the filled sections appear repeated. I hope this does not cause any issues, but please let me know if any corrections or further actions are needed. Thank you for your assistance!

Best regards,
Reza

Indonesia Copyright-Transfer Agreement

This Agreement is made with Cornell University Southeast Asia Program (SEAP) Publications. The Agreement is for the item submitted by you ("Author") for publication in SEAP's journal, Infomixit, and is referred to in this Agreement as "Article."

To enable SEAP Publications to publish the Article in Indonesia ("the Journal"), the ownership of copyright must be established. Please read and complete this form (Section A plus Section B), sign in the space provided, scan the signed form and send us a PDF (if possible), or mail the completed original hard copy to us at the address listed below as soon as possible.

SECTION A: Author's Warranty

In consideration of the publication of the Article in the Journal, I hereby warrant and undertake:

- a. that this Article is an original work, has not been published before, and is not being considered for publication elsewhere, either in printed or electronic form;

- b. that I have obtained permission from the copyright holder(s) to reproduce in the Article (in all media including print and electronic form) material not owned by me, and that I have acknowledged the source;

- c. that this Article contains no violation of any existing copyright or other third-party right; or any material of an obscene, indecent, libelous, or otherwise unlawful nature; and that to the best of my knowledge this Article does not infringe the rights of others;

- d. that I will indemnify and keep indemnified the Editors, SEAP Publications, and the Journal against all claims and expenses (including legal costs and expenses) arising from any breach of this warranty and the other warranties on my behalf in this Agreement; and

- e. that in the case of a multi-authored Article I have obtained copyright assignment from all co-authors, in writing, to enter into this Agreement on their behalf and to bind them to it, and that all co-authors have read and agreed to the above warranties.

SECTION B: Copyright Assignment

In consideration of the publication of the Article in the Journal, I hereby assign to SEAP copyright for the full period of copyright and all renewals, extensions, revisions, and revivals together with all accrued rights of action throughout the world in any form (including electronic and all other media, both now known or later developed), and in any language. The Journal may assign its rights under this Agreement.

Notwithstanding the above, I retain all proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent and trademark rights, and rights to any process or procedure described in the Article.

Specifically, the Authors retain the following rights:

- a. The right to use in the author's future works (books) all or part of this work, provided that acknowledgment is made that the original Article was published first in the Journal, and that a full citation to the Journal's publication is included in the new work;

- b. The right to make oral presentations of the material in any forum;

- c. The right to make copies of the work for internal distribution within the author's organization/ university and to use the material in the classroom.

Jim Siegel Reappears - Your abstract and keywords

Details

To: Sidel, JT, Vicente L. Rafael, drutherford@wennergren.org, Cc: Emily Hertzman

Dear all,

As you know, the Jim Siegel feestschrift volume is now moving into the final stages. We have been asked by the journal to provide abstracts and keywords for each of the papers. We are on a tight timeline and need to receive them back by Aug. 1.

When you send them, you can simply hit reply all on this email, or send them to Emily Hertzman at emily.hertzman@utoronto.ca.

Some common keywords that may pertain to many of the papers, and which you might consider including in your list are:
"James T. Siegel" "Indonesia" "anthropology" "Cornell"

All the best,
Joshua (and Vince, Danilyn, and John)

Dear Reza Idria

We are coming down the home stretch with the special issue "Jim Siegel Reappears". At this time, I would like to give you the opportunity to review and copy edit your contribution. Please attend to this ASAP and send your finalized manuscript back to me by August 2nd. Alternatively, you can elect Joshua and I to do the final copy editing on your behalf. Please just let me know your preference. Also, we are requesting a short abstract and a few keywords to accompany your paper.

I'm very excited about this important contribution.

Sincerely,
Emily

Dear Emily,

Thank you very much for the update. I have reviewed and made some changes on the manuscript based on editor's comments. Additionally, I have added the requested abstract and keywords. Please find it attached.

For the final copy edit, I would prefer you and Joshua to handle it on my behalf. I really appreciate your time throughout this process and look forward for the final version.

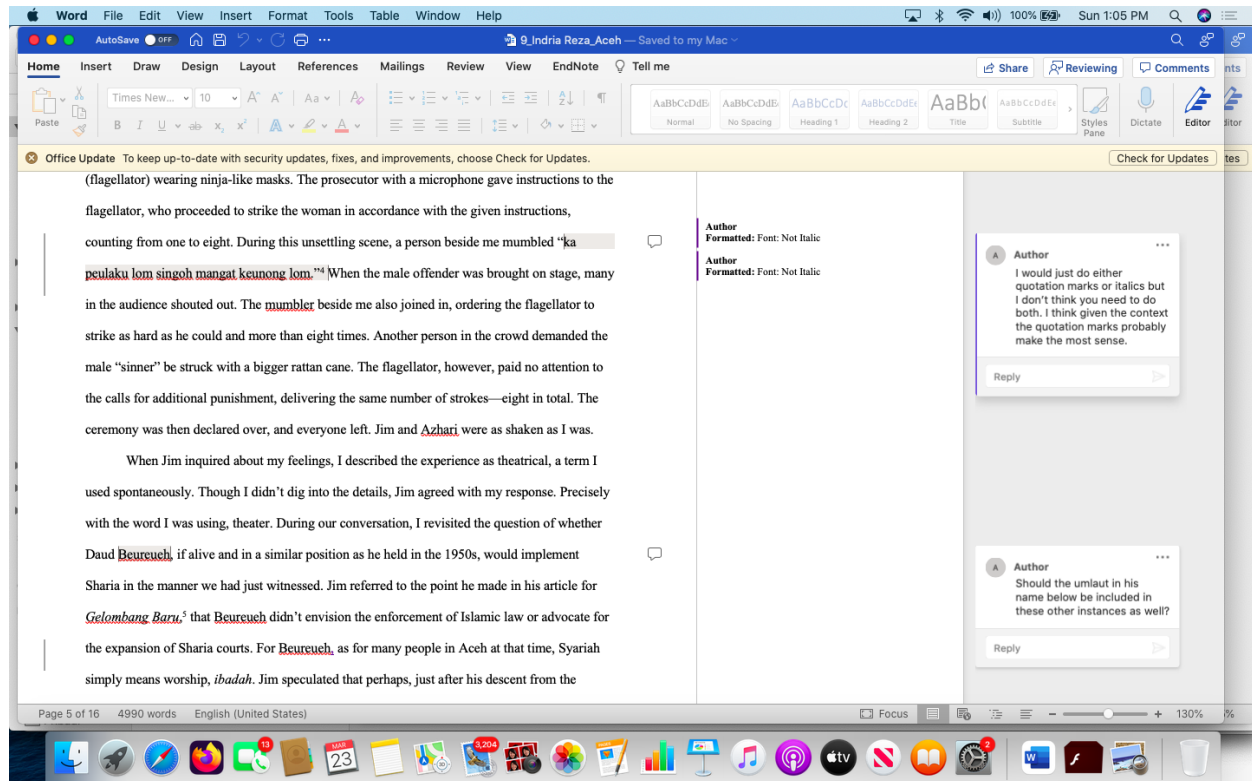

Sincerely,

Reza
