Article ID: 811*Dear Luthfi Auni, Abdul Manan (Author):*Thank you for submitting your paper to Jurnal Ilmiah Peuradeun.

It is a very interesting topic. Although we appreciate the work you have put into the paper, we have determined that your paper needs several developments in order to be considered for publication in the Jurnal Ilmiah Peuradeun. There are several points of view that should be considered in particular which may construct the paper.

After Editorial Board and Reviewers inspect and review your manuscript, we have reached a decision regarding your submission about "The Semiotic Meaning and Philosophy of Symbols in The Gayo Ethnic Marriage Processions in Central Aceh".

Our decision is: Revisions Required

We have received comments and decisions from reviewers for your manuscript. Your manuscript should be pending publication due to some minor revisions which may construct your manuscript. Attached are the overall comments of the peer reviewer about your manuscript (Please see reviewer notes in the attached file).

Reviewer A:

This manuscript reports on an analysis of the semiotic meaning and philosophy of symbols in certain ethnic marriage processions in Aceh. The issue addressed in the study is important and interesting. However, the study has several fundamental flaws that might be difficult if not impossible to address through revisions. Some notes have been marked on the reviewed manuscript that probably could assist the authors to revise their manuscript (correction attached).

Reviewer B:

1. This article is good, just a little improvement on language structure and abstracts. The abstract must be a synthesis of content. Please pay more attention to the abstract scope.
2. The manuscript is well-written in an engaging and lively style. This is a well-written article that identifies an important gap. The reviewer has no hesitation in recommending that this article be accepted for publication after a few typos and other minor details have been attended to (correction attached).

Please revise your manuscript. The Deadline for revision and re-submit of the manuscript is within two weeks from the date of the notice. And then, please make a Table of Corrections to make it easier for editors to assess your revised manuscript. The Table of Corrections contains the reviewer's comments, your revision, and the page. You can see the Table of Correction format on the journal's website, in the author's guidelines section.
